PREMIERING OUR THIRD MAJOR THEME PARK—DISNEY-MGM STUDIOS!

DISNEY-MGM STUDIOS THEME PARK

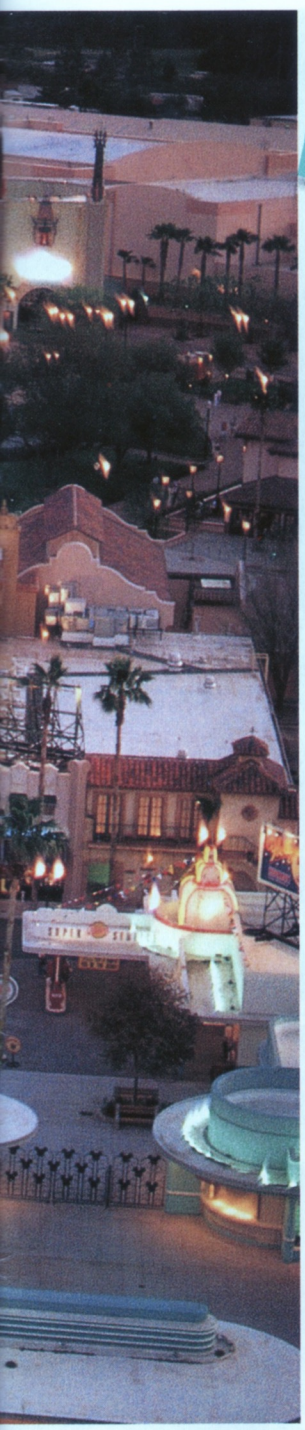
First came the Magic Kingdom. Then the incredible Epcot Center. Now comes the ultimate Walt Disney World experience—the Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park.

It's a fabulous, new day of Hollywood adventures at the Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park!

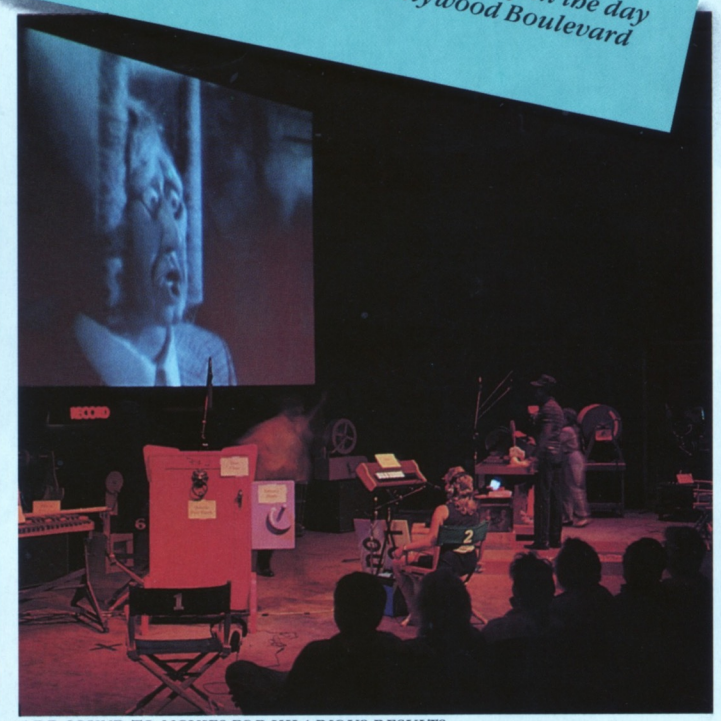
Begin your vacation here, in the middle of the hubbub of Hollywood in its heyday. Meet Hollywood hopefuls, autograph hounds and gossip columnists as you stroll down Hollywood Boulevard. If you want some authentic memorabilia, shop at Sid Cahuenga's One-of-a-Kind. You can buy movie props, artwork and personal items used by the stars.

Now head down the Boulevard toward the famous Chinese Theatre where movie stars are granted immortality. The footprints, handprints, and even faceprints of the famous can be found here. Inside "The Great Movie Ride," you'll travel in theater-size cars through the romance, laughter, and heart-pounding action of some of Hollywood's most classic films.

On your way stop in the Epic Stunt Spectacular—if your heart can stand it—and watch some death-defying feats recreated from cinematic adventures just for your breathtaking pleasure! You'll see some of Hollywood's most hair-raising scenes materialize right before your eyes!



TIP: Take the Backstage Studio Tour early in the day and enjoy the excitement of Hollywood Boulevard in the afternoon.



ADD SOUND TO MOVIES FOR HILARIOUS RESULTS.

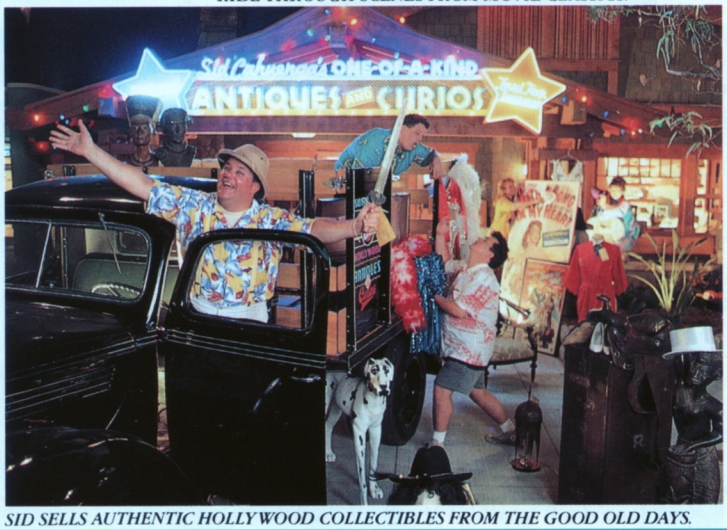
ESCAPE THE CROSS-FIRE OF GANGSTERS.



SID SELLS AUTHENTIC HOLLYWOOD COLLECTIBLES FROM THE GOOD OLD DAYS.

For some side-splitting comic relief, The Monster Sound Show is an ear-opening experience as the audience adds sound to hilarious scenes with famous comedians. Afterwards, entertain yourself at a hands-on, interactive exhibit which lets you use your own creativity in adding sound to film. It's all presented by SONY®.

Now head for SuperStar Television, also presented by SONY®. You'll learn how television shows are produced, and if you want, you can "star" in one of your favorites in a real live television production. What an opportunity for fame-seekers! You'll also see a fascinating review of TV through the years from early morning to late night.

There's so much more to see! On Echo Lake, don't miss Dinosaur Gertie's Ice Cream of Extinction or Min and Bill's Dockside Diner, permanently moored on the water.

For a special meal, there's The Hollywood Brown Derby, inspired by the Hollywood institution which opened in 1929 on Vine Street near Hollywood Boulevard. And don't miss the 50's Prime Time Cafe and Tune In Lounge. A step inside is just like walking into a 1950's sitcom. This is nostalgia at its most unique!

In between all these wonderful places are unique opportunities for fun and shopping. You'll want to experience all of it.

Now get ready for the big time. Go through the gates to the Disney-MGM Studios Backstage Tour and see how it's done for reel!

Step through the gates and into the world of movie production. Board a Backstage Shuttle for part of the tour, then walk through the rest for a close look at some moviemaking magic.

Once on your shuttle, you'll stop briefly in costuming, before exploring the backlot streets used as backdrops for first run TV shows and box office hits.

BACKSTAGE STUDIO TOUR

See movies and TV shows actually being made. Meet their stars. It's a whole day of Hollywood spectaculars at the new Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park!

Your Backstage Shuttle moves on to the streets of New York City. Big Apple landmarks come to life everywhere, including George Washington Park in Greenwich Village.

Then get ready for some excitement. As you enter Catastrophe Canyon, floods, fires and explosions transform that tranquil-looking, 50-foot-high canyon wall into a mountain of trouble. What an experience!

After a break, you can get a close up view at moviemaking on a walk-through tour of studios while movies and TV shows are actually being filmed. You'll see action on three separate Soundstages, and get a chance to walk through a fourth one to get the feel of a Hollywood set.

At the Special Effects Tank you can star in a high-seas adventure scene to show the world how it's done on film. You'll stop at Special Effects Workshop where some of the tools of the trade used in classic movie productions come to life.

And now for the frosting on the cake! The Magic of Disney Animation is a working animation studio where you can watch as artists produce animated characters in all-new adaptations of classic fables. You'll tour the Animation Gallery, a jewel of an exhibit, which displays some of Disney's historical animation art in an elegant atmosphere.

At your leisure, you can return to the energy and fun of Hollywood Boulevard to finish off the first day of your vacation.

Who is that moving into your photo of Mickey's Birthdayland? Why, it's the birthday mouse himself, and the whole gang is right behind him. Just one more reason why the Magic Kingdom is the greatest place on earth to make memories.

MAGIC KINGDOM PARK

Ear comes the fun! Mickey Mouse's 60th birthday party continues at the Magic Kingdom. For sheer delight and fantasy, there's no place on earth like Mickey's Birthdayland*—an all-new land teeming with surprises.*

You'll get some terrific shots if you grab your camera and climb aboard the Walt Disney World Railroad for a whimsical ride to Mickey's Birthdayland. When you arrive, walk through Mickey's House and out the back door to Minnie's Kitchen where a surprise birthday party is cooking. Help Goofy, Donald, Pluto, Chip 'n' Dale and Minnie bake an unforgettable cake. Afterwards, stroll through a topiary maze, zoom in with your camera on some real live barnyard babies at Grandma Duck's farm, and just enjoy your visit to Duckburg, Mickey's home town.

Then prepare for the biggest and most exciting parade in years, "Mickey's All-American Birthday Parade" as it dazzles and sparkles its way down Main Street, U.S.A., all the way through Frontierland.® Next, it's on to Cinderella Castle where a sensational show, "America the Musical" wows guests.

Now take a "Dreamflight" (opening this Summer) with Delta Air Lines, the Official Air Line of the Walt Disney World Resort. You'll explore the history of air travel from barnstorming to hypersonic flight. Next comes a brush with wild beasts on Jungle Cruise, and a trip through the inky blackness of Space Mountain, presented by Thomson Consumer Electronics, RCA Brand. Add some fantasy to your vacation by flying with Dumbo or joining Peter Pan and Wendy as they glide through the skies of London. Sail with Pirates of the Caribbean, too, and dance with the happy haunts at The Haunted Mansion.

Plan your trip just right and you'll catch some of the special attractions that light up the night during summer and holiday seasons—the Main Street Electrical Parade and Fantasy in the Sky Fireworks. They'll bring this chapter of your vacation to a festive and magical close.

On your journey, you'll encounter a three-headed troll which sends you sailing backwards over rapids and waterfall! Shopping, dining, and learning about these seafaring people are all a part of the Norway experience.

SAIL IN THE THE MIDNIGHT SUN ON "MAELSTROM."

Here's the best darn swimmin' hole this side of Huck Finn's wildest dreams. River Country! It's a "must!" This watery oasis has enough rope swings, slippery slides and fantastic flumes to turn the most resolute landlubber into an old salt in no time. And it's yet another attraction inside the Walt Disney World Resort.

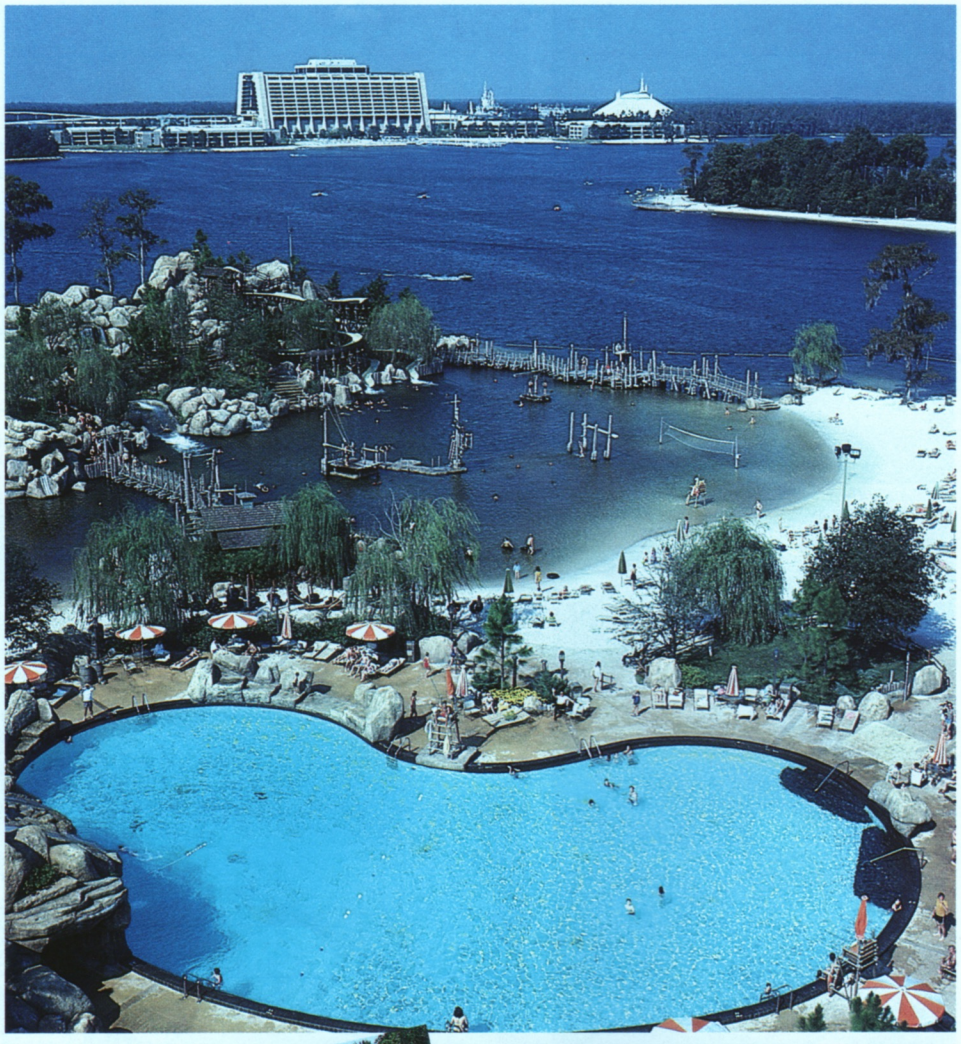
RIVER COUNTRY

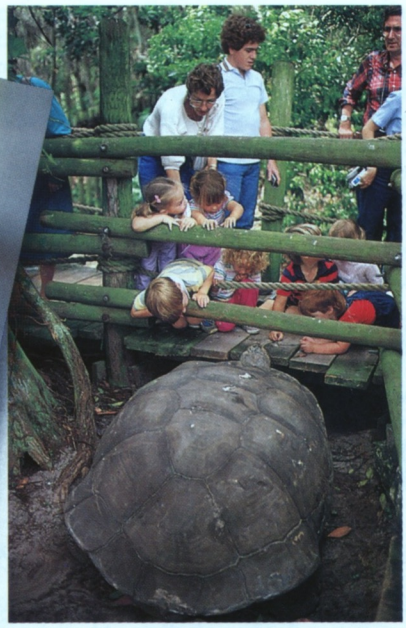
Swing from a rope! Scream down a gut-wrenching slide! Ride the white water rapids in an inner tube! This is Disney's answer to the old swimming hole—and even Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn would approve.

From the 260-foot slide into Bay Cove to the corkscrew that winds down Whoop-'N'-Holler Hollow, there's enough watery high jinks at River Country to please even the biggest wet blanket.

Sun worshippers love the soft sugar-sand beach of Bay Lake, and swimmers can do laps across the gigantic pool. Spend the entire day if you like. There are picnic tables and a snack bar, a nature trail—you can even rent lockers and towels.

All of this not-to-be-missed water fun for the whole family is tucked away at Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort and Campground. Be sure to include this spot in your vacation.





DISCOVERY ISLAND

Walk with a peacock. Talk to a macaw. Watch trumpeter swans glide down babbling brooks and streams. Discovery Island, Disney's own certified zoological park, brings a world of nature to your vacation.

Lemurs and wallabys, miniature deer, marsh rabbits and cavies, brush turkeys and hornbills, marmosets and tortoises, flamingos and swans, turkeys and cranes, alligators and lizards—all of them and many more species of mammals, birds and reptiles live in the spectacular flora of Discovery Island, presented by Gaines Foods. And all of them can have a part in your vacation fun!

Set like a jewel in Bay Lake, Discovery Island is a natural land formation which now supports the world's largest captive collection of scarlet ibis. A total of 90 animal species—many exotic—and a veritable United Nations of plant life from around the globe—250 species all—are cultivated here.

Stroll through a bamboo forest, walk along the beach, relax in the world's largest walk-through aviary. It's paradise found!

Spend as much or as little time as you want, but don't miss this special island of fun. You can catch a launch to Discovery Island from Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort and Campground, Disney's Contemorary Resort, Disney's Polynesian Resort, Disney's Grand Floridian Beach Resort, or from the Magic Kingdom. Combine your trip with a day at River Country for a unique highlight in your vacation memories.

Keep a sharp eye out for Mount Mayday. It rises an impressive 90 feet into the air and is topped by the wreckage of the fabled shrimp boat, Miss Tillie. Together they form the landmark of Typhoon Lagoon, an all-new water adventure experience being introduced this summer at the Walt Disney World Resort. Then get ready to scream down 51 feet of this tallest manmade watershed mountain at 30 miles per hour on the Humunga Kowabunga.

TYPHOON LAGOON

Typhoon Lagoon, the world's largest inland surfing lagoon, offering the most innovative, state-of-the-art water adventures ever devised for the whole family, opens this summer!

You'll get some amazing photos for your vacation album at Typhoon Lagoon. Every 90 seconds, you can catch an ocean-sized wave big enough for surfing as it skims across the largest concrete pool built anywhere.

For competitions and other special occasions, the lagoon can produce waves comparable to the surf in Hawaii and Australia! And of course, it's surrounded by a beautiful beach!

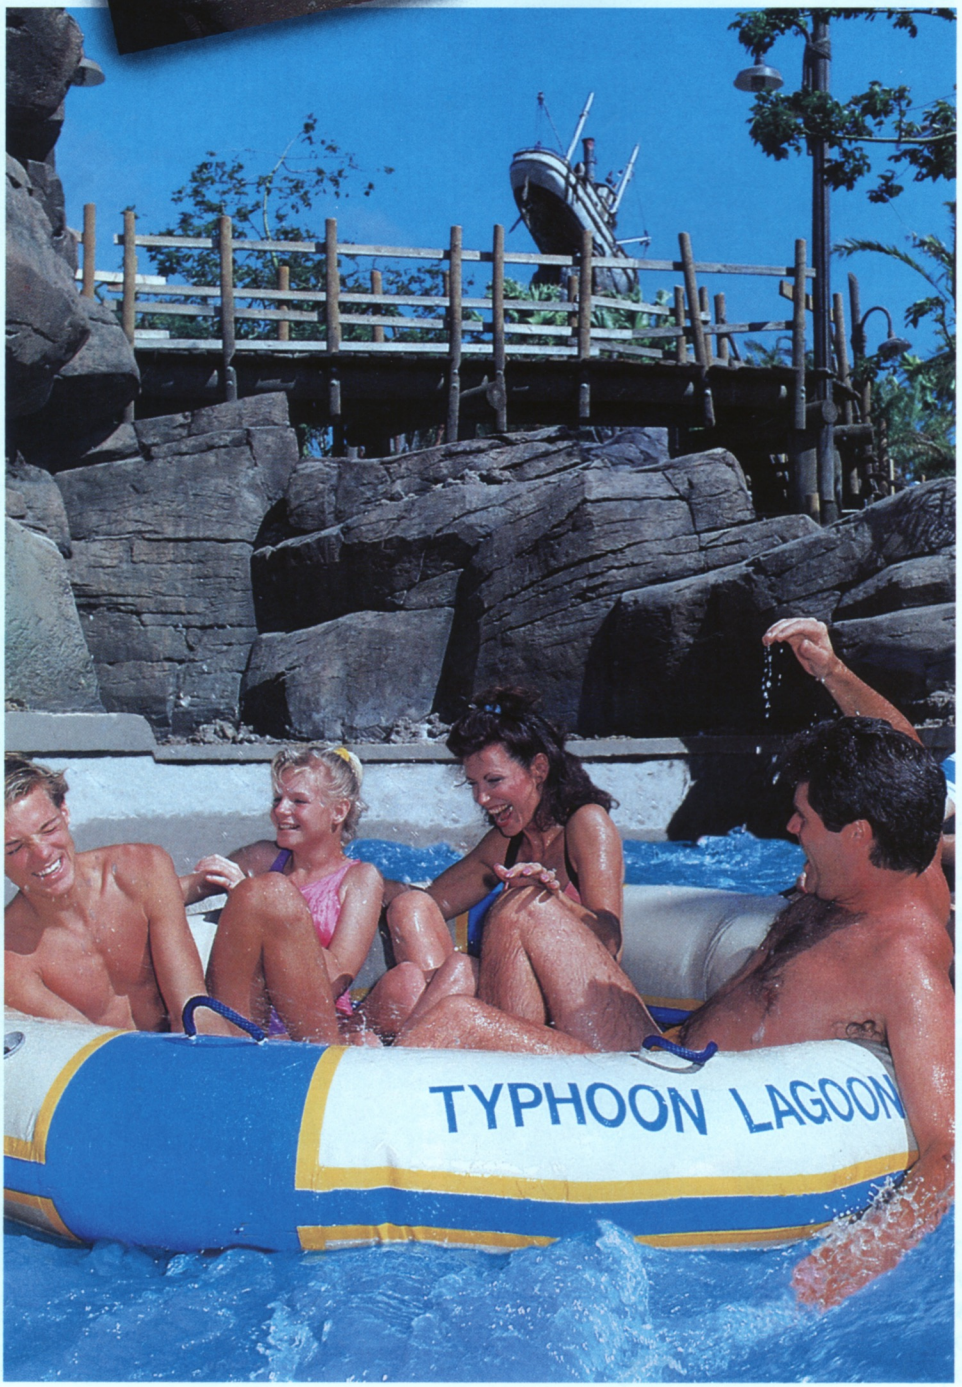
At Shark Reef, a salt-water tank with an ecology designed to support sea life, you can come face to face with shark as you snorkle around an upside down shipwreck. Or stay dry and watch the action from inside!

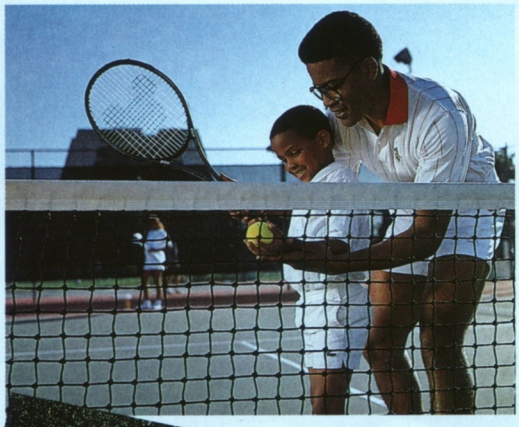
Next you'll want to catch your crew on body slides and family raft rides.

All raft rides feature "soft foam" tube slides as you pass through caves and waterfalls. One, with a triple vortex, adds a new "twist" to white-water rafting.

At Ketchakiddee Creek, no one over 48 inches high is allowed to enter. These ball fountains, floating boats, waterfalls, slides, and squirting animals are for kids only. Nearby is a nice shady spot for Mom or Dad to watch.

Transportation around Typhoon Lagoon is provided on Castaway Creek, a continuous river which carries you by inner tube from station to station at the comfortable pace of 2.5 feet per second. It's a wonderfully lazy way to enjoy this incredible place.





We'll fill your vacation with as much fun as you can handle.

Take golf, for example. It doesn't get much better than this. Play the Magnolia, the Palm, and the Lake Buena Vista. All three are spectacularly landscaped and manicured 72-par championship courses played by the pros each year during the Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Golf Classic, an annual stop on the PGA Tour.

RECREATION

The Walt Disney World Resort is a total vacation destination. Besides the greatest entertainment in the world, there is sailing, golf on three 18-hole championship courses, tennis, boating and more! Better make sure you allow enough time—it takes four days just to see the parks!

Check out the tennis, too. Thirteen lighted courts are scattered throughout the Walt Disney World Resort. Sign up for a clinic if you like, or challenge the ball machine. Pros and proper equipment can help you improve your game.

Meanwhile, the waterways of the Walt Disney World Resort are teeming with opportunities for a good time. Marinas invite you to take a spin in a mini-speed boat, or to sail a catamaran or sunfish. Paddle boats and canoes are available, too. If you like to waterski, it can be arranged. So can a fishing excursion. They're all the more enjoyable because only Disney-owned watercraft are permitted on our waterways.

Running, biking, jogging, fitness trails and horseback riding trails are a part of the recreation, too. And nearly 20 swimming pools—reserved for the use of resort guests—sparkle in the sun as nearby sandy beaches beckon. So plan on as much healthy exercise as you want. It's all here at the Walt Disney World Resort!

DISNEY VILLAGE MARKETPLACE

Shop till you drop at the picturesque and simply wonderful Disney Village Marketplace. Then a leisurely meal or a quick snack will revive you completely.

Your accommodations are housed in one of five island villages awash with the colors of the Caribbean. Each has its own pool, beach, laundry facility, and special decor that makes it Aruba or Jamaica or Martinique or Barbados or Trinidad. The islands are linked to each other and to Old Port Royale, the hub of the resort, by a picturesque promenade which winds around the edge of Barefoot Bay, a sprawling, 42-acre lake, sparkling in the sun.

At Old Port Royale, Calypso music floats across the plaza, wraps the fountain in its rhythm, and drifts to an "ancient" Spanish fort, framework for a meandering guest pool. A stroll inside Old Port Royale is a mouthwatering experience. Delicious aromas waft from Cinnamon Bay Bakery, Port Royale Hamburger Shop, Oriental Cargo, Montego's Market, Bridgetown Roller, and Royale Pizza and Pasta Shop. Your island thirst can be quenched at Captain's Hideaway, an adjacent lounge.

From Old Port Royale, you can sail into Barefoot Bay, rent a bike, or just walk the promenade. And just a footbridge away is Parrot Cay, a special island for children which charms kids and parents alike with its cages of tropical birds and winding paths leading to imaginative play areas.

Best of all, monorails will whisk you to incredible places in this wonderful world.

Longhouses hug the shore of a shimmering lagoon. The lilt of Hawaiian music skips across a breeze. Birds trill softly. A child giggles with delight. The air is rich with the mingling of tropical flowers and exquisite cuisine.

DISNEY'S POLYNESIAN RESORT

Enchantment beckons from every corner of Disney's Polynesian Resort and lures you into a tropical fantasy you'll never forget.

Disney's Polynesian Resort puts you in the center of a tropical world as real as the sun that warms you and as authentic as the breeze that cools you.

Traditional Polynesian architecture and landscaping dominate the scene. Palm lined pathways and tropical gardens lead to exotic swimming pools with cascading water.

A picturesque marina is tucked between pools and longhouses, close to the Great Ceremonial Hall which serves as the hub of this 23-acre resort.

Inside the longhouses, you'll find your spacious accommodations. Appointed with fine furnishings, each room reflects the tropical essence of this exclusive resort. Royal Polynesian Service, the South Seas equivalent to Concierge Service, is available to pamper you during your South Seas fantasy.

Native island dancers add to the lure of the tropics each evening during "The Polynesian Revue," held at Luau Cove. The memories from this superb dinner show promise to linger forever.

Other dining and entertainment opportunities can be found at Papeete Bay Verandah, Tangaroa Terrace, Coral Isle Cafe, and the Tambu Lounge. Plan a children's night out at The Neverland Club, a supervised dinner club for unescorted children, or take the whole family to "Mickey's Tropical Revue," a fun-filled dinner that's sheer delight.

Monorail service is available from Disney's Polynesian Resort to places of fun and excitement within our world.
